Greening Your Workplace

Monday February 20, 2012

From 10:30 – 1:00pm

City of Terrace, B.C.
City Hall, Firehall Training Room, 3215 Eby Street

Waste management, eco-efficiency, carbon neutral, zero waste... what does all this jargon mean and why should you care?

Customers, employees, governments and taxpayers are becoming more concerned about environmental performance. How will this impact your operations and how can you capitalize on it? This workshop will introduce you to the opportunities and challenges of greening your business. Designed for small and medium sized offices, retail outlets or storefronts, we will explore how the Regional District of Kitimat-Stikine can support your efforts. By the end of the workshop you will have a draft Zero Waste Action Plan to take back to your workplace.
