

NEWS RELEASE – City of Terrace Welcomes New RCMP Officer In Charge

The City of Terrace will welcome our new Officer In Charge (OIC) in November 2018.

Inspector Jayson Lucash joins the Terrace RCMP Detachment after 22 years of service working in various detachments throughout the Lower Mainland, North and Southeast Districts. During this time, he has worked as a general duty officer, a traffic services officer, a watch commander as well as a detachment commander.

Inspector Lucash received his commission in April 2017 and assumed the duties of the OIC Traffic Services for the North District.

We look forward to welcoming Inspector Lucash to the community later this fall.
